U.S. Air Force Museum tours offer look 'Behind the Scenes'

WRIGHT-PATTERSON AFB, Ohio — Interested individuals can now register for the Museum's Fall "Behind the Scenes" Tours, scheduled for Sept. 14, Oct. 12, Nov. 9 and Dec. 14.

The tours will take visitors to the Museum's Restoration, Collections and Exhibits areas located in hangars on the historic Wright Field flight line in Area B of the base, about one mile from the main Museum building. Visitors will be able to see a variety of aircraft in varying stages of the restoration process, learn of some of the techniques used in exhibit construction, and become acquainted with collections management processes.

Limited to 40 participants each, the tours are free. Participants must be at least 12 years old; an adult must accompany those between 12 and 18.

To make tour reservations or to gain more information, call the Museum at (937) 255-3286, ext. 302. @
